The I.D.A. Publisher's Handbook.

I have volunteered to edit the IDA Handbook for new (and used--ugh) Publishers. I have suggested to the IDA that it make this publication available free to all new publishers and at a nominal rate to all others.

Below is an outline of topics to be covered. If you have any additions to this list please let me know. I also need sets of current Houserules for section IC of the Houserules section. The sets I will use, plus any others which are made available to me, are; Canard Press, Graustark, Alcala Press, Impassable, Claw & Fang, Atlantis and Arena.

John Boyer and Rod Walker will be helping on this project but any and all offers for articles and help will be used.

I. Houserules

IV. Gamesmastering methods and procedures (Individual articles by GMs and procedures used in GMING.)

Please mail all suggestions, Houserules and articles to me by May 15, 1975. Members of the committee will be given specific topics to treat.

The complete Handbook should be about 40 pages in length. Mimeo or Ditto reproduction should be adequate for the Handbook so that costs will be under $80.

The following persons have sent game fees for the next novice game:
Alan Rowland, N.J.; David Weitz, Wisc.; Fred Brenner, N.Y.; G. Christenson, Texas;
Jon A Michal, Ill.; and Karl Borden, N.H. I need one more game fee to begin this one. Everyone please send a country preference list! I'd like to begin the game in the next issue.

Analysis:

The only real surprise in the move was the Austrian aid to Russia. It seems that Italy might be of more help to Austria in the position but Eric is going to go down with all flags flying by taking Edi down with him. Such malice can only help Turkey, in the long run, for even if Austria gives Sud to Russia (by removing A Bud) Russia can't hold it very long when Turkey presses home the attack.

Pitsch now has the best game with the best possibilities because, seeing Austria's vendetta, Italy may give up to the Sultan--I'm sure Edi won't give centers to Verheiden or Johnson! If Turkey builds A Smy, Fank Johnson has had it in the south. F aeg-ion is textbook in this situation to keep all Turkish options open. I expect a massive anti-Russian move both north and south that may even crush him before Austria falls. Russia throwing his Italian ally to the dogs in S02 was a monumental blunder which will seal his fate in 1903-04.

Germany is too stable and set. With a growing France and a growing England Germany's long term position could be weak. It will depend on the English for they are the key. Vagts is allying with Germany and ignoring the French. Sooner or later the 3 way defacto western alliance must decide to stay together against the 10-12 piece Turk growing in the east or they must break up in a stab quickly enough to still stave off the Turk.

France will have a great deal of influence in the west and the east. His build of F Mar, which is very likely, will seal the Med. If Italy gives up to him instead of Turkey then France will hold the best cards in the 3 way western alliance.

Russia's alliance with the dregs of Austria will never suffice. He is doomed in the north and has nothing to offer. Germany gains nothing from turning on England and has everything to lose. There would have been a lot to say for an all out attack on Germany instead of the waste in 'Austria'. Had Russia forgotten the south he might be able to do something in the west even though he would have to remove 1 (his useless F Rum). Now Germany can afford a probe into Gal or a supported convoy into Lvn with tragic effect on Russia.

When Italy saw no hope of allying with Austria (I'm sure Eric didn't lie--too much--to Edi) he should have invested all his strength west to try to convince England and Germany to get France. Trying to maintain a two front war is impossible for Italy--especially if the west ignores France.

England still has a good game but after StP, then what? He must be content with 6 or stab Germany or France. Soon the ignoring of France will come home to haunt Arnold. He should have jumped in on the body while he had a chance. That chance is almost gone!

The Valuo Grid for the game shows England ahead but this is due to England's ability to stab Germany, which I don't think he will do. I would now rate the country's chances of a win at; Austria 60:1, England 2.5 to 1, France 7.5 to 1, Germany 8.0 to 1, Italy 12:1, Russia 10:1, and Turkey 2.5:1.

Please send an initial set of moves by return mail. This habit insures delivery and you can always change your moves after you negotiate. ALL MOVES should be one side of one sheet of paper. They should be clear and readable (proofread them!). They should have this information;

1. Game # (use the Boardman #, which will be assigned next issue)
2. Your Country
3. The Season and Year which the moves cover
4. The date on which the moves were written
(the postmark is unimportant)
5. YOUR SIGNATURE--unsigned orders will NOT be followed

Complete houserules will be included with the next issue of LD.

About the GEMIGNANI AWARDS BALLOT....

This little piece of good will was invented by Robert Sacks' sick little mind to foster some bad blood, because it certainly is not "fun" to fill out and shows a certain amount of horror. Fill it out and have "fun"!

The GAMESLETTER Vol. 13 #5&6; Whole 77/78 is out from Don Miller, 12315 Judson Rd., Wheaton, Md. 20906. subs; 25¢ ea., 10/$2. Reviews of Wargaming and Diplomacy magazines plus books on games in general. Highly recommended!

ATLANTIS #78, Christopher Schleicher, 814 East Old Willow Rd., Apt. 214, Wheeling, Ill. 60090. 10/$2. Game fee $7. Games, article on DIPLOMACY OPENINGS by Eric Verheiden. ((note; the majority of the article is correct but detail is lacking especially the A Mar-Burg, A Par-Gas, F Bre-MAO french opening, and does not the the full potential of the Italian and Russian openings. But otherwise it is of good content and of value to new players.)) Zine reviews are included plus an updated "A RATING SURVEY #4". This 'survey' is of questionable value as it is not based as much upon the "standard rating base" as are the other true rating systems in the hobby.

GEMIGNANI AWARDS BALLOT

LIAISONS DANGEREUSES 55

Check off, or write in, up to seven(?) candidates for the first award and up to one candidate for each of the others. Place your ballot in a signed envelope(?) indicating your present (or most recent) relation to the hobby (e.g.; player in 1974 AB, GM in the POUCH, Diplomacy Widow, etc.). Mail to Robert Sacks, GEMIGNANI AWARDS Teller, 15-F Tang Hall, 550 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Ma. 02139. Ballots will be opened and counted 22 May, 1975.
